

Keeping Our Partnership Active

Our Partnership in the Gospel

1Corinthians 10:14-17

Remembering . . .

- assigns the person or thing remembered an active role in our life & world.
- is active.
- should transform both attitude & action.

1Corinthians 10:14-17

- 14-15 Stop setting your hearts on things other than Christ.
- 16 Consider your participation at the Lord's Table.
- 17 Consider your union with both Christ and others.

Keeping our Partnership Active . . .

1. We examine our active confidence in Christ. 14-15; 10:1-5

- Exposure to saving power of God. 1-2
- Participation in the spiritual worship of God. 3-4
- Failure to please God in real life. 5

Keeping our Partnership Active . . .

2. We affirm our absolute loyalty to Christ. 16; 6-13

'common to man' loyalty concerns

The grip and appeal of the world to your over relaxed and undisciplined mindset.

10:7

Keeping our Partnership Active . . .

2. We affirm our absolute loyalty to
Christ. 16; 6-13

'common to man' loyalty concerns

The lack of your moral restraint when faced with opportunity for instant self gratification. 10:8

Keeping our Partnership Active . . .

2. We affirm our absolute loyalty to
Christ. 16; 6-13

‘common to man’ loyalty concerns

The presumption of immunity to spiritual danger due to overconfidence in your knowledge. 10:9

Keeping our Partnership Active . . .

2. We affirm our absolute loyalty to
Christ. 16; 6-13

‘common to man’ loyalty concerns

The acceptance of grumbling because you are a victim of trials too heavy and unfair.

10:10

Keeping our Partnership Active . . .

3. We commit to loving one another for Christ's sake. 17; 23-24

You remember the people around you as precious for Christ's sake.

8:11-13

Keeping our Partnership Active . . .

3. We commit to loving one another for
Christ's sake. 17; 23-24

You remember to seek the welfare of others above your own as Christ did.
10:23-24

Keeping our Partnership Active . . .

3. We commit to loving one another for
Christ's sake. 17; 23-24

You remember to become the slave of everyone for the sake of the gospel.

9:19-23

Take Aways

1. Pray and reflect.
2. Consider and commit.
3. Rejoice and give thanks.

