Where do feelings for God come from?

To the Saints at Kossuth Street

Be a worshipping community!

Ephesians 1:4-8

All true worship is a response to the self-revelation of God in Christ and Scripture, and arises from our reflection on who He is what He has done . . .

The worship of God is evoked, informed, and inspired by the vision of God . . .

The true knowledge of God will always lead to worship.

Your affectionate response to God, begins
in some hard to reach places . . .

Be a worshipping community!
Ephesians 1:4-8

1. God chose us in him . . . 1:4

Affectionate worship begins in eternity past with God's choice.

3. In Christ we have redemption . . . 1:7-8

Singing to God is launched at the cross with the provision of forgiveness.

Lord, I am listening . . .

1. Acknowledge your self-focus as an underlying cause of your lack of affection and feelings for God.

2. Admit that your feelings for God mirror your efforts to seek him and know him.

3. Ask God to expand your heart and transform your affections for the praise of his glory.
