

Living Your New Life

Ephesians 4:17-21

Regarding your new life,
you were taught . . .

(or should have been).

Living Your New Life

Ephesians 4:17-21

Regarding your new life, you were taught . . .
(or should have been)

To put off your old self. 4:22

You are a new person in Christ.
Your old way is increasingly corrupt.

put off

renew

put on

Living Your New Life

Ephesians 4:17-21

Regarding your new life, you were taught . . .
(or should have been)

To be renewed in your mind. 4:23

appreciate the unseen dimensions humbly cooperate with God

put off

renew

put on

Living Your New Life

Ephesians 4:17-21

Regarding your new life, you were taught . . .
(or should have been)

To put on the new self.

4:24

Your new life is created by God.
Your new life has radically new values.

put off

renew

put on

Take Aways

Living Your New Life
Ephesians 4:17-21

Do you recognize these common values of the well taught . . .

Decisive abandonment of the old . . .
repentance, confession, humility and brokenness.

put off

renew

put on

Take Aways

Living Your New Life
Ephesians 4:17-21

Do you recognize these common values of the well taught . . .

Enthusiastic cooperation with mind renewal . . . Bible reading, teaching, meditation and memorization.

put off

renew

put on

Take Aways

Living Your New Life
Ephesians 4:17-21

Do you recognize these common values of the well taught . . .

Decisive embracing of God's grace . . .
an obedient response to God prompted by fear and awe of Him.

put off

renew

put on

