

Spirit Filled Worship & Life

Ephesians 5:15-21

What are you full of?

Be filled with(by) the Spirit

What are you full of?

1. What are you desiring more than anything else?
2. What do you find yourself day dreaming or fantasizing about?
3. Are you astonished with the gospel?
4. Where have you made much of yourself and little of God?
5. Is technology stealing attention from your family?

What are you full of?

6. Is work replacing your spouse's place in your heart?
7. Where do your thoughts drift to when you enter a social setting?
8. What fears are paralyzing your heart from enjoying God?
9. What consumes your thoughts when you have alone time?

Spirit filled gospel fullness results in . . .

Musical worship. 18-19

1. Your singing is both a result of and response to fullness. 18-21

2. Your singing is intended to address two audiences with thanksgiving. 19

3. Your singing should embrace a variety of forms. 19

Spirit filled gospel fullness results in . . .

Grateful engagement. 20

Gratitude is to be comprehensive.

Gratitude is to be with confidence.

Spirit filled gospel fullness results in . . .

Mutual submission. 21

‘Submitting’ means to place under, to subordinate.

Submission is rooted in the gospel.

Submission is motivated by your respect and reverence for Christ.

Submission to each other is mandated.

Spirit filled gospel fullness happens when ...

You subject your life to ...

The indwelling Word.

Col. 3:16

Abiding prayer.

Acts 4:23-31

Confession and repentance of sin. Eph. 4:30
